

The range of musical offers of the dedicated artists Martina Ertel and Detlef Lisiecki is exceptionally extensive, it can be a well prepared program for a children's birthday but it also can be the implementation of an entire musical culture week.

Whether their commonly created musical events or their own events, all of their performances are highly complementary – for more information visit the websites:

www.revelation-music.de

www.tina-ertel.de

The title REVELATION is really accurate – both musicians are genuine artists who know how to give music as a living gift to the people in various ways and in an impressive manner.

The artistic range of supply is all about music and appeals to all age groups from 3 years.

Whether single event, day program or cultural week, REVELATION stands for quality, is professional and has a lot of dedication to each of their compelling live acts. In their music courses or during their performances all musical topics are easy to understand.

The main intention of both artists is that each listener or participant can keep his REVELATION event as a special experience in memory.

REVELATION is much more than a band ...

phone: 01573 - 37 11 706 e-mail: info@revelation-music.de