REVELATION stands for creativity and independence far away from business interests and superficial consumption.

The presentation of unique self created compositions, style spreading, impress with a high musical standard in the context of a great stage performance – the versatile duo takes the listener into a world of sonic fascination and special atmospheres with extraordinary facets and musical expressiveness.

REVELATION also offers special music courses for different instruments. At these courses creativity is in the foreground. Questions will be answered in a simple way. Exciting it is mainly for participants who think that they are not musical ...

Individually created programs for your own party, your own vernissage or advertising presentation give a special touch to your personal event – on our websites you can get more information about us and the total supply of REVELATION with a lot of audio clips of our music:
